

May

2010

We're Closing Up Shop!

Everything has to go...

Books, furniture, lighting fixtures, even the floor is up for sale (although that will be one of the last things out the door). We have put together a list of our fixtures and are jotting down names and numbers of interested parties. So if there is something we have that you want to take from our home back to yours, come in and ask. Some things are priced, but no reasonable offers will be refused.

Books for Sale...

1 – 5 used books = 50% off
6th used book + = 75% off
(Larger discount applies to least expensive titles)

~
New Books = 40% off
~

And don't forget to visit our downstairs where you can pick from a variety of great titles.

Fill a bag for $20

Why We're Going...

Please don't be too sad. We aren't. Roxanne Reads has been a tremendous success due to our wonderful customers and the incredible Riverside Community.

I've decided to close the shop because it's time to take on new adventures. And although I am not sure what those are yet, I am excited (and a little scared) to see what the future holds.

Monthly Quote...

"Some day you will be old enough to start reading fairy tales again."

- C.S. Lewis

